Now in order to show you how successful we have been, and I would appreciate your attention, we have, in the past, had rules and regulations which would fill about a half a room. Directly in front of you, right below this podium, are the rules and regulations now of the State of Nebraska of those agencies that are required to report to us. If you don't think that is wonderful, it is because that's all that's left of them and that's how small they became after we worked this thing over.

These rules and regulations have been distributed, at the present time, to every law library in the State of Nebraska ... county law library that has indicated to us that they have a county law library. You'll notice a list of those that have been distributed. This is free to them. It doesn't cost them money. Then you will also notice a list there of those who apparently do not have a county law library, or have not reported to us. Let me tell you this, we have enough of these rules and regulation sets left, and we did it on purpose, ready for distribution if those counties will come to life and tell us that they have a county law library and request a copy ... a set of the Rules and Regulations of the State of Nebraska. Due to the wonderful cooperation of the entire Legislature in granting us this right to distribute Rules and Regulations, let me say that any citizen of the State of Nebraska now has, at his access, a set of Rules and Regulations in their county law library that they can find something in. It's simple. It's all coded. They're all the same. The lawyers, the attorneys, the judges and everyone else can, at last, find what they want. I would invite your inspection of the new set of Rules and Regulations of the State of Nebraska which is at the bottom of the podium. I thank you very much.
